No By-Election in Edmonton-Riverview: Taft

Edmonton - Kevin Taft is back in the Legislature today after a vacation.

“I am back to do the important work of holding the government to account. As leader of the Alberta Liberals I am committed to asking the hard questions necessary of the government and to representing the concerns of Albertans,” he said.

Kevin commented on his future as MLA for Edmonton Riverview, where he was elected for his third term by 2500 votes in March.

“The people of Edmonton-Riverview selected me by a wide margin to represent them in the Legislature, they put their trust in me and I won’t let them down,” said Taft. ‘Let me be clear, there will be no by-election in Edmonton-Riverview.’ Taft says he will stick to his earlier plan of announcing his future as the Leader of the Alberta Liberals by the end of June.

Kevin will be holding a media availability today in the Legislature media room at 11:30 a.m.
